Youth - not a time of life but a state of mind, a temper of the will, a quality of imagination, a predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite for adventure over the love of ease.
- robert f. Kennedy

Guised in a mood of conscious restlessness, the youth of 1969 battle the impelling forces of the masses in order to attain a seemingly perfect state---that of the individual.

Idealistic? Very. But it is this very trait that characterizes the younger generation. Having yet to taste the very bitter of life, it plows headlong into the task of reforming that which it cannot condone---Vietnam, the draft, racial prejudice, and so much more.

Impatient for solutions, many a teen turns with piercing frustration---only to return in search of his goal. He has the time to try again and again for youth is young!

Dedication

Under the direction of the co-principals, Sister Patricianne, C.S.C. and Brother Raymond, F.S.C., San Joaquin Memorial has begun an evolution toward a more unified school.

Memorial has probably undergone more modifications during the administration of Sister Patricianne and Brother Raymond than in any other previous one.

As this movement of change gathers momentum, Memorialites adapt themselves to the variations, large and small, which are constantly being introduced. Each of these changes is made for the benefit of the students.

Too frequently, students are so wrapped up in the novelty of it all, that they fail to give due recognition to those who made these changes possible---the co-principals.

There are times when it is futile to try to put into words that which the heart feels---and this is one of those times. Each of us has our own memories of both individuals---too many to write down at this time.

But it is with deep pride and great appreciation that we, the students of San Joaquin Memorial, dedicate this, the SPIRIT OF '69, to Sister Patricianne and Brother Raymond.

YOUTH---". . .a temper of the will. . ."

Throughout the school year, freshmen demonstrated the ability to cope with life at S.J.M. They proved themselves able under the guidance of Sister Catherine and Brother Clarence, moderators, and their homeroom representatives.

One of the Frosh activities included the graduation breakfast for the seniors and their parents. This was the first time the parents were invited.

The freshmen also beautifully decorated for the Father-Daughter Dance that had a nineteenth century theme.

Their youthful spirit was seen, too, in the Folk Mass that they sponsored.

"We're Number One!" shouted the Class of '71 triumphantly. Amidst the boisterous cheers and applause, sophomore cheerleader Kevin O'Neill proudly accepted the 1968-1969 S.J.M. Spirit Trophy on behalf of his class.

This memorable event seemed to climax the class' year-long drive for unity, spirit, and triumph--a drive which proved successful in every way.

Plans began to materialize in early September for the Halloween pumpkin sale sponsored by the class to supplement its treasury. Soon after, plans were made for the collection of food and clothes for the Thanksgiving Drive, as well as for items to be sent to the men in Vietnam under the Red Cross program.

As the lenten season neared, the annual Mardi Gras dance was held. Sophomore candidates, Joanne Derouchey and Tom Ferdinandi, were crowned queen and king on the basis of class attendance.

A folk mass for all students, family, and friends was held in early April on the Senior Lawn followed by a pancake breakfast--prepared by sophomore students.

Culminating a year of unified and spirited activity, the sophomore class sponsored the annual Senior Farewell Dance--ending on the same successful note that they began on.

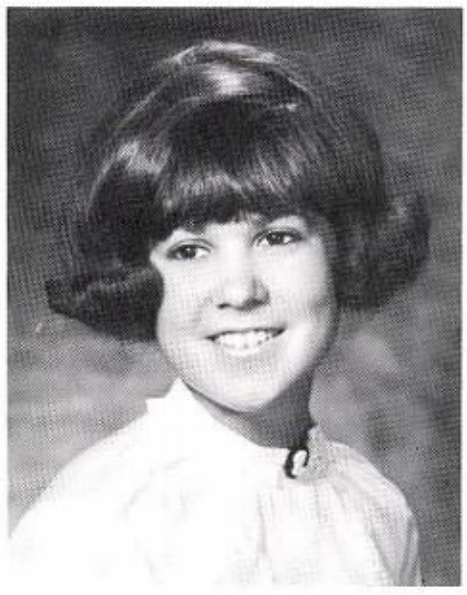
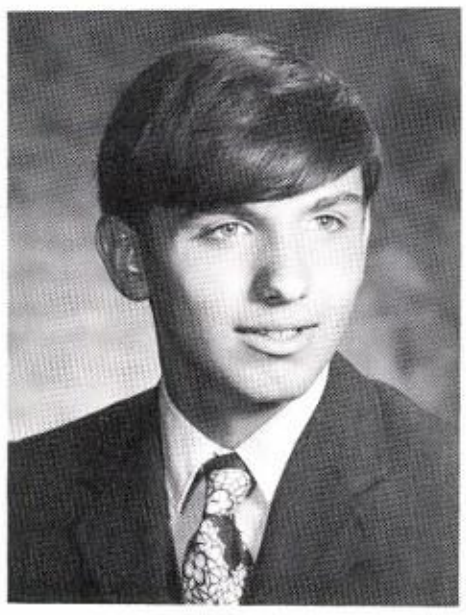
Genita Kovacevich
Junior Class Vice-President



The class of '70, led by officers Brian Whitney, Genita Kovacevich, Olivia Navarro, and Carlo Prandini, has shown enthusiasm throughout the school year.

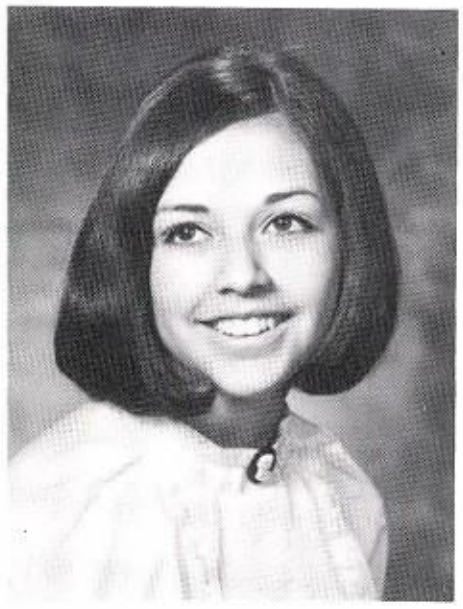
Carlo Prandini
Junior Class Treasurer



Highlighting the first part of the year was the Junior Ring Ceremony which set a tone of unity during the year. For the first time in Memorial's history, the junior religion classes were coed, with Brother Warren and Sister Philippa heading the experimental group. The merger of the two sections was also another unifying factor.

Frosh-Junior Night, sponsored by the Juniors, was an effort to introduce the freshman class to S.J.M. activities. The Juniors combined their efforts with the Sophomores in decorating for the Mardi Gras. The social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom, was just one example of the many talents displayed by the Juniors throughout the year. The Juniors were also hosts for the girls' slumber party.

Olivia Navarro
Junior Class
Secretary



Leading the school in spirit and enthusiasm were cheerleaders Brian Heryford, captain, and Jim Sani. Juniors also held the responsibilities of office in Sodality, Y.C.S., G.A.A., and other organizations.

By meeting the challenges of the past three years, the Juniors have gained experience in school affairs which will enable them to lead Memorial towards new and fulfilling goals.

The Student Body co-presidents this year attempted to unify the school through joining the previously separated boys' side and girls' side officers. The Seniors carried on the theme of unity by electing only one set of class officers.

Other efforts to unify the two sides included mixed classes and joint lunches. The class of '69 chose Carmel for its annual outing. This event was supported by the parents of the class who sponsored a champagne tasting party to raise funds. The Seniors themselves contributed to this fund by putting on a talent show for the student body.

The Sadie-Hawkins Day was organized by the class of '69. Seniors also held the dance, that evening's climax to the pie-eating and beard-growing contests.

The spirit of unity as fostered by the class of 1969 has left a deep and lasting impression on San Joaquin.

The Annual Gets An Inside View

Under the supervision of Sr. Catherine, the staff of the Spirit of '69 worked hard to include this year's spring events in the August book. Besides its normal task of producing a pictorial review of the school year for the student body, faculty and other interested parties, the staff attended a workshop in Visalia where it learned the fine points of journalism. It also attended a conference at Fresno State at which the staffs of the yearbook and school newspaper combined their efforts to take the first place sweepstakes trophy.

2. Mr. Higgins, American Yearbook Representative of Fresno, discusses page layouts.
3. Joan McAvoy and John Renn, editors of the annual, work with the moderator Sr. Catherine, for the success of the yearbook.
4. Touring the yearbook plant are Bruce Lopez, Sr. Catherine, Elizabeth Renn, Linda Idiart, Pat Palacios, and John Renn.
5. Emilda Djabayah and Elizabeth Renn thumb through another school's book.

Red And Blue Again Takes All-Catholic And All-Valley

The Red & Blue reporters had the task of keeping their fellow students informed as to the happenings on campus. The paper was published eight times this year for the first time in its history. Staff members from the junior class were given a chance to ready the Christmas insert for publication as well as the entire last issue. Joan Skopec and David Cornelius co-editors, along with moderator Sr. Patrick Thomas, guided this year's staff to the publication of a pleasing and informative paper.

Sodality Shows Devotion To Mary

This year's Sodality expressed devotion to Christ through Mary by active apostolic service. Moderator Sr. Marilla and officers worked diligently to make Sodality a success. The changing seasons brought on the various activities. Yuletide marked the Christmas card sales and the staging of the annual Queen's Ball. Spring brought stuffed animals for the Good Ship Hope. Sodalists made stuffed toy animals and sent them to the floating hospital ship for the children there.

During Holy Week, Sodalists distributed orchid corsages to the women of Fresno's retirement homes.

Y.C.S. Inspires Christian Action

Young Christian Students--Y.C.S.--is the national federation of students whose purpose is to spread Christian love. After discussing problems in their own lives and the lives of others, they try to find some way to solve them. Weekly meetings help to train Y.C.S. members to be leaders among their peers and help each member to mature as it progresses as a social group.

The clatter of typewriters is not usually associated with school spirit. But the service of the BUSINESS CLUB, made up of secretarial and accounting students, was just as important as the rallies and games. Headed by Sr. Angelicia, the members assisted the faculty immeasurably. Among the numerous services performed were dittoing flyers and typing letters to be sent home.

6. Heads of the Business Club are Linda Hill, Sr. Angelicia, Carol Esquivel, Veronica Sweeney, and Annette Guerriero.

LIBRARY CLUB members were given a chance to practice what they had learned in class by assisting Sr. Jeromita. During school hours and after school until 4 o'clock, the girls worked checking books out, keeping the card catalog in order, and doing various other jobs. Aside from their regular duties, they sponsored a Faculty Tea, a book sale, and a field trip.

The California Scholarship Federation's main interest is the academic standards of the school. To achieve these standards a student must maintain a 3.5 GPA.

All students with outstanding academic records were acknowledged at an Awards Assembly held in the gym at the end of the school year. The Junior and Senior members of C.S.F. were honored at a dinner, where Mr. Jesse McComb and Mr. Robert Reynolds, C.S.F. moderators, were among the guests of honor.

But C.S.F. is best known around campus for its San Francisco trip and its Dating Game, now established as annual events.

The Rally Committee of 1968-69 was enthusiastic in promoting spirit for the various sports seasons by organizing rallies. Moderator, Brother Warren, did a commendable job in working with the Rally Committee for the success of the rallies.

Working as Commissioner, John Mueller endeavored to provide eye-catching signs and interesting rallies, while Co-commissioner, Carol Wathen, took care of the necessary correspondence and handled the spirit trophy which is awarded to the class which has accumulated the most number of spirit points through various activities.

Also sharing in the planning of rallies was the all-important rally card artist, Mike Farmer; the Script Committee, compromising the talents of John Casey, Kathy Papagni, and Linda McLaughlin; Mark Klasen, notorious master of ceremonies; and the Cheerleaders: Brian Heryford, Captain, Brian Robinson, Bruce Smith, alternate, Jim Sani, and Kevin O'Neill. Out on the field, the Field Committee decorated the goal posts under the direction of Gayle Wathen, Lauri Conforti, and Edee Fry. Yet, all of this planning and all of their efforts would have been a waste if it were not for a responsive student body.

Music Enlivens School Spirit

The San Joaquin Memorial Band was the hard-working group of 60 young musicians who performed under the direction of Mr. James O'Connor. Their purpose was manifold. While they were developing their talents, they provided entertainment for the SJM student body by playing at rallies and games, as well as participating in parades and band concerts. Their competitive spirit was proven at the Selma and Long Beach Reviews where they merited a high placement among other valley schools. Eventually, the band hopes to grow in size and stature.

Athletic Clubs Sport Fair Play

Although this year's G.A.A. had planned many activities, a few had to be cancelled to the disappointment of the organization. The annual snow trip was cancelled due to the year's unusual amount of snowfall. The successful activities of the group included the sale of See's candy suckers, the Powder Puff football game, and the Mother-Daughter banquet.

President Eleanor Castro, Vice-President Yolanda Rivera, Secretary Debbie Frechou, and Treasurer Chris Manuszak, with the assistance of Moderator Miss Dee Pirrman, worked long hours to provide the members with an enjoyable schedule.

Winning ways are becoming a way of life for San Joaquin and as the years pass Memorial continues to grow in strength on the gridiron.

"This year's team has been the hardest working and most enthusiastic team we have ever coached. Last year's team worked hard, but this year's team worked even harder and made the season a very enjoyable one to coach, " stated head-coach Bruce Seifert and assistant coach Dan Stockton in reference to the '68-'69 season.

Throughout the entire season, injuries hindered the squad's attempt to corral an undefeated season. Nevertheless, Memorial completed its best season in fifteen years with an 8-2 record.

The Memorial squad boasted eight senior starters on offense and seven on defense. Dean Jelmini, Pat Cleary, Bob Ciccarelli, John Behrens, Pat Beggs, Frank Ortenzio, Greg Kemble, and John Casey comprised the nucleus of the hardest working team ever to play on the Memorial gridiron. Never before has pride and the desire to win been so well instilled in the members of the team.

Memorial came to within one game of winning the much sought after N.S.L. crown. This loss came in the last game of the season, when the Panthers lost a heart-breaker to Dos Palos.

Cubs Charge To League Crown

It has taken a total of 23 years for the San Joaquin frosh-soph to become winners. And winners they are since they have become the first undefeated frosh-soph football team in Memorial history.

Led by experience and an abundance of talent, the frosh-soph has been able to overcome many obstacles in becoming winners. Numerous injuries complicated the season but were overcome.

A very instrumental person involved in the season's success was freshman halfback John Prandini. His running mate, Joey Valdivia, also accounted for the impressive record of 9-0 boasted by the team.

On offense, the eager eleven maintained an average of 21 points a game. Tackles John DeSantiago and Rick DeFeudis and guards Chris Alamano and Anthony Camaroda protected their nucleus extensively through the season from the foe's charge.

With basically the same line on defense, excepting Rudy Facio as middle guard, the Panthers held their opponents to an average of 3 points a game. The fine line was supported in the backfield by veterans Joey Valdivia, Mick Zuniga, Joe Alandt, and freshmen Rick Jelmini and Ben Lee.

Coach Jerry McCleneghan's "youngsters" proved to be men with the season now in the past and the trophy in the cabinet display.

This year's cross country season brought many advancements to the sport at Memorial. The largest turnout of runners in the five year history of the sport was evident, and a full seven-man varsity and frosh-soph teams qualified for the Valley Meet.

Under the diligent guidance of second year coach Jim Saccheri, the team showed its strength by going 5-4 in dual meet competition, finishing 3rd in the Sequoia Sierra Division, and 12th in the CIF Central Section.

Individual accomplishments were made by sophomore Mike Castro, who set the school two-mile mark of 9:47, the school course record (2.03 miles) of 10:36.6, and was named the outstanding runner. Other awards went to sophomore Anthony Moreno, outstanding frosh-soph runner, and senior Jim McKenna, team captain.

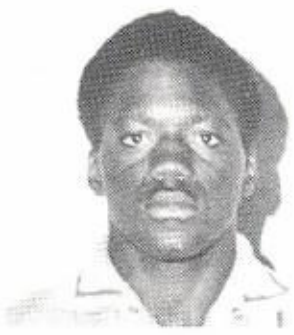
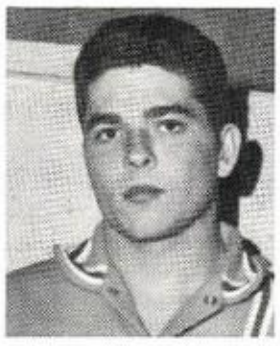
Panthers Bring Home Trophies





A successful season is determined by the performance of the team throughout the year. This year's basketball team ended on a losing note, but the accomplishments of this fine team were enough to be spread out over a couple of seasons.

The Sanger Kiwanis' Tourney trophy came home to S.J.M., as did a runner-up trophy in the Fresno Bee Tournament. A twenty-four year draught ended as the first league championship was won, and a fourth-place finish in the valley culminated the year.

But more than a mere trophy could bring, more than a few victories over the year could show, a feeling of pride and accomplishment was instilled into this team, and into Memorial, which is sure to continue through the years.

Team: Roscoe Pondexter, Dave Tucker, Joe Epperson, John Behrens, Al Raymond, Pat Cleary, John Peyton, Ramon Esquivel, Lee Ochoa, Mike Schedler, Barry Warmerdam, Will King, Coach Tom Cleary, and Manager Pete DelMastro.

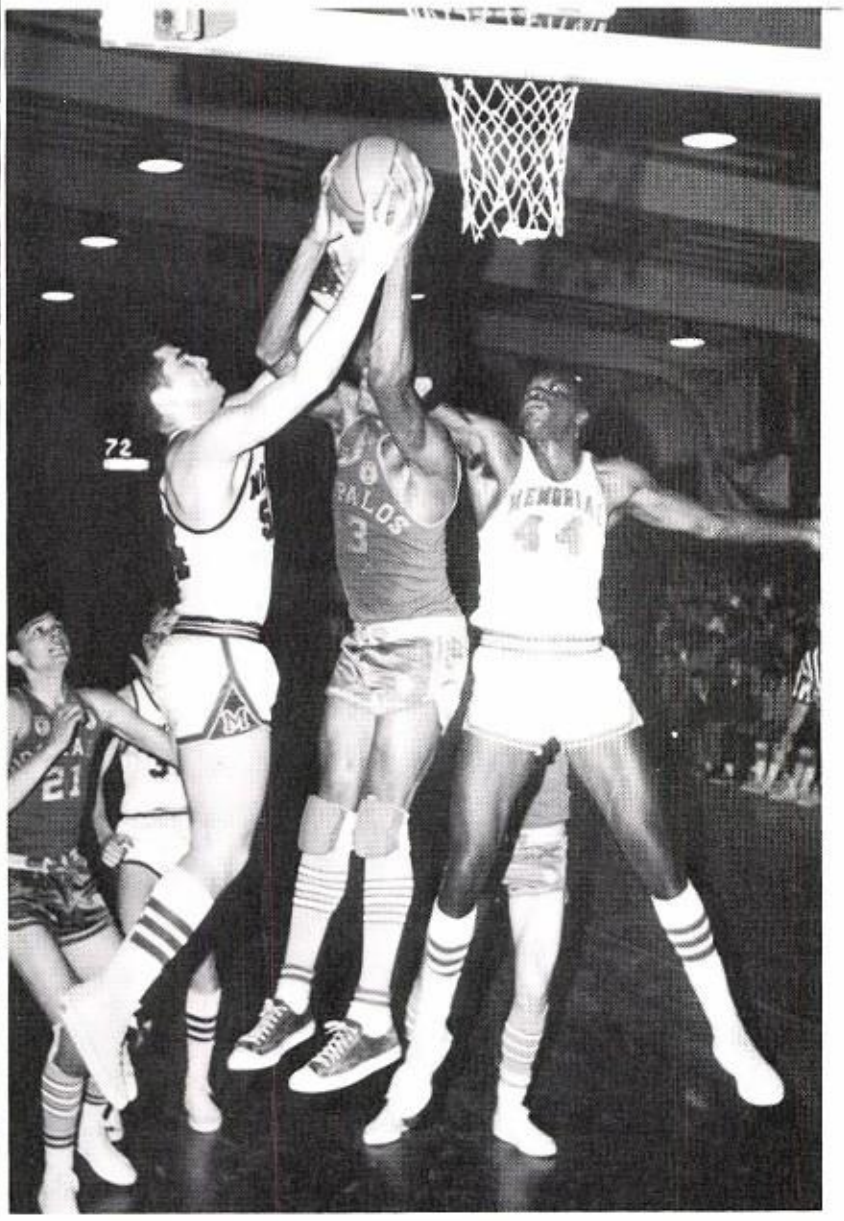
And A League Crown



1. Al Raymond and Roscoe Pondexter, 44, fight for a rebound in the last game of league play.
2. John Behrens, the only senior starter, drives past a Washington defender.
3. Dave Tucker stops to set a play as he is guarded by a Washington Cager.
4. Two points are scored as Pat Cleary shoots an easy jumper.
5. A Redskin shot is stolen by Barry Warmerdam as the Panthers trounce stomp to a 99-61 win.

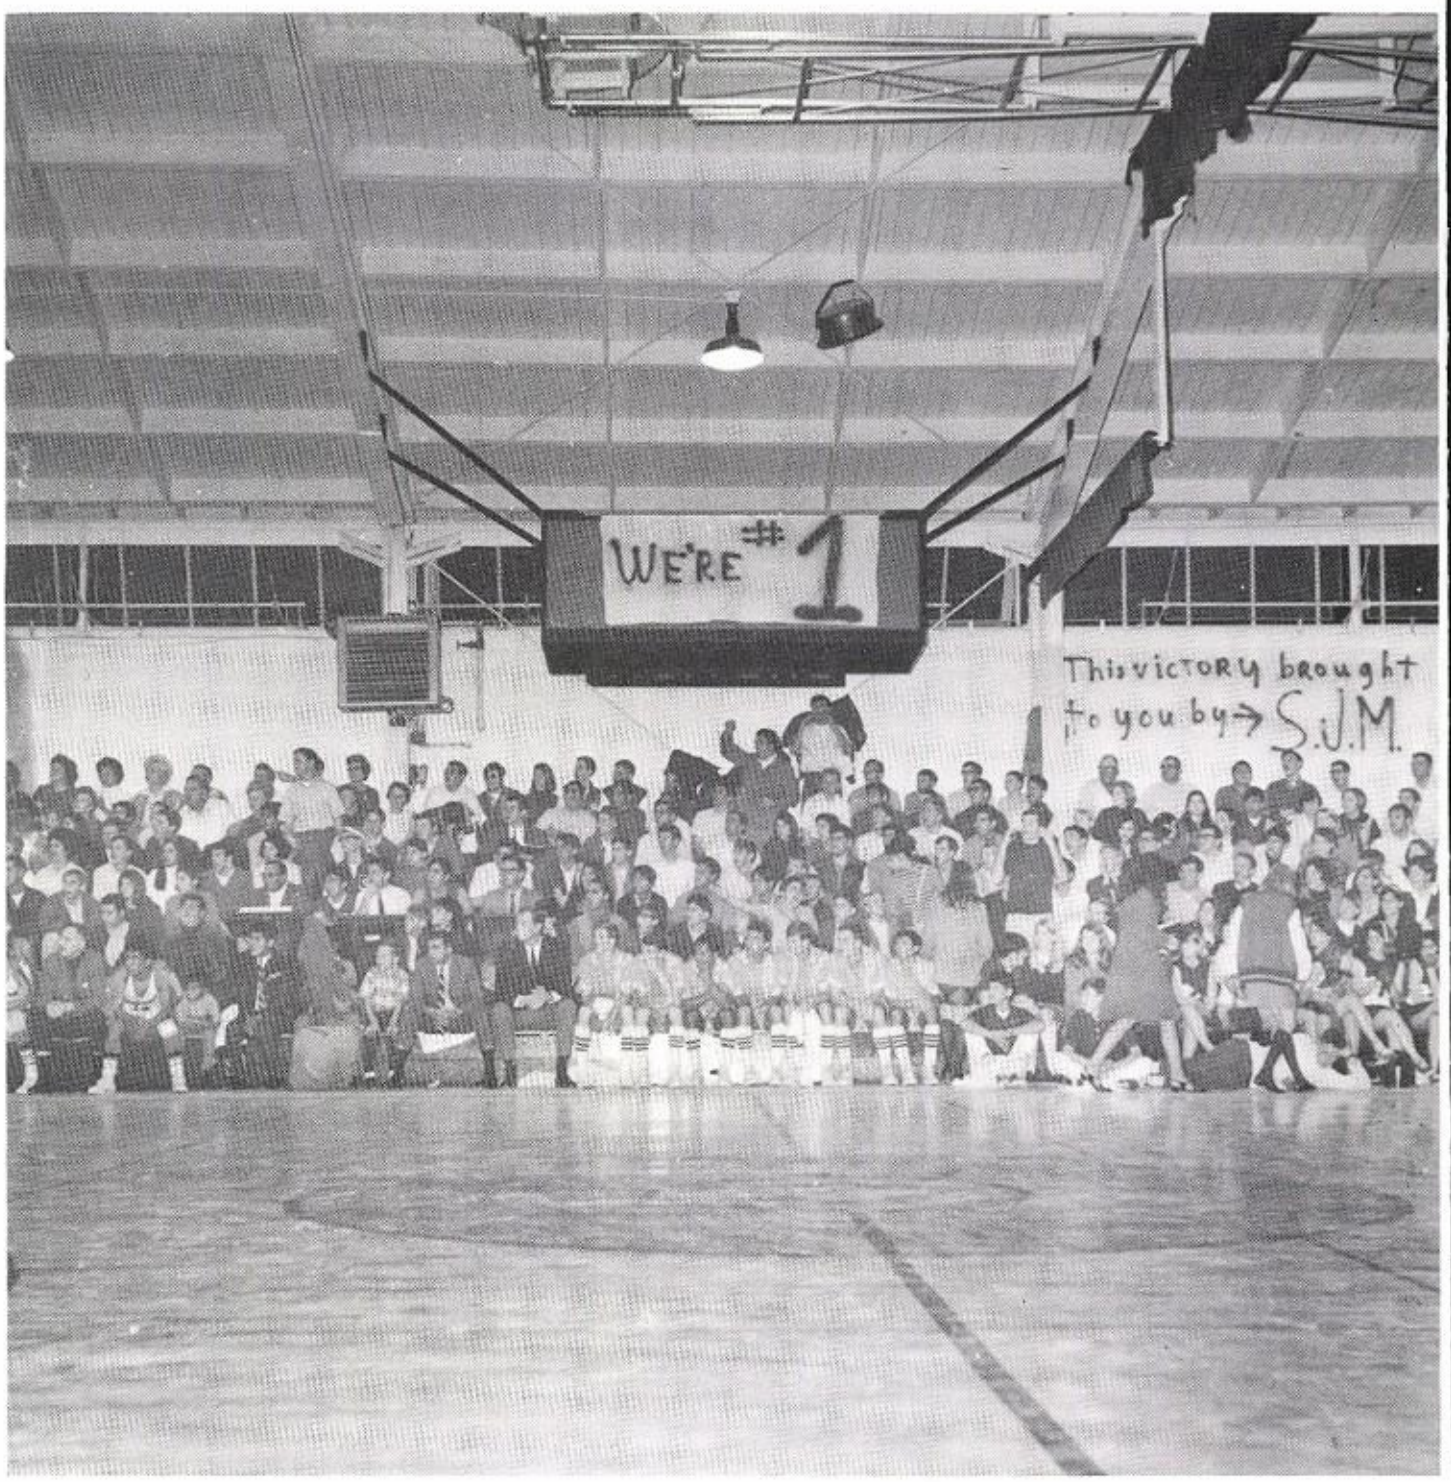
Varsity Wins Berth In Valley Finals

1.



1. Bench coaches, an anxious team, and an uneasy cheering section pay complete attention to the action from Central's sidelines.
2. Al Raymond drives for another one of his "muscle shots."
3. Center Roscoe Pondexter puts up his favorite shot--a 15-foot jumper.
4. Slick guard Joe Epperson sets up a play in the quarter-final round of the Valley Playoffs against Orosi.
5. High-leaping forward Dave Tucker, an All-Valley tourney choice, tips the ball in the third place game with Immanuel.
6. Reserve center Will King uses Tucker's screen to get off a jumper, between Immanuel's James Nickel and James Willems.

Building for the future is the purpose of a frosh-soph team and this year's team certainly did that.

The squad had its troubles at the beginning of the season, lacking in spirit, but Head Coach Dan Stockton molded them into a unit who created problems for every team they faced.

Budding stars included Ben Lee, known for his twisting, driving lay-ins and adept ball-handling ability, and Steve Schattinger, a ball player formed around the word "hustle." Randy Ferry and Phil Heck were solid stalwarts, while Tim Cate and Tim Rhames could always be counted on to hit the boards. Carl Ramsay, Dave Wenig, and Ezell Cooper appeared to be promising guards.

1. The Frosh-Soph team members are: Ezell Cooper, John Prandini, Steve Schattinger, Rick Defeudis, Coach Dan Stockton, Randy Ferry, Tim Cate, Carl Ramsay, Mike Trotter, Ben Lee, Paul Parano, and Dave Wenig.

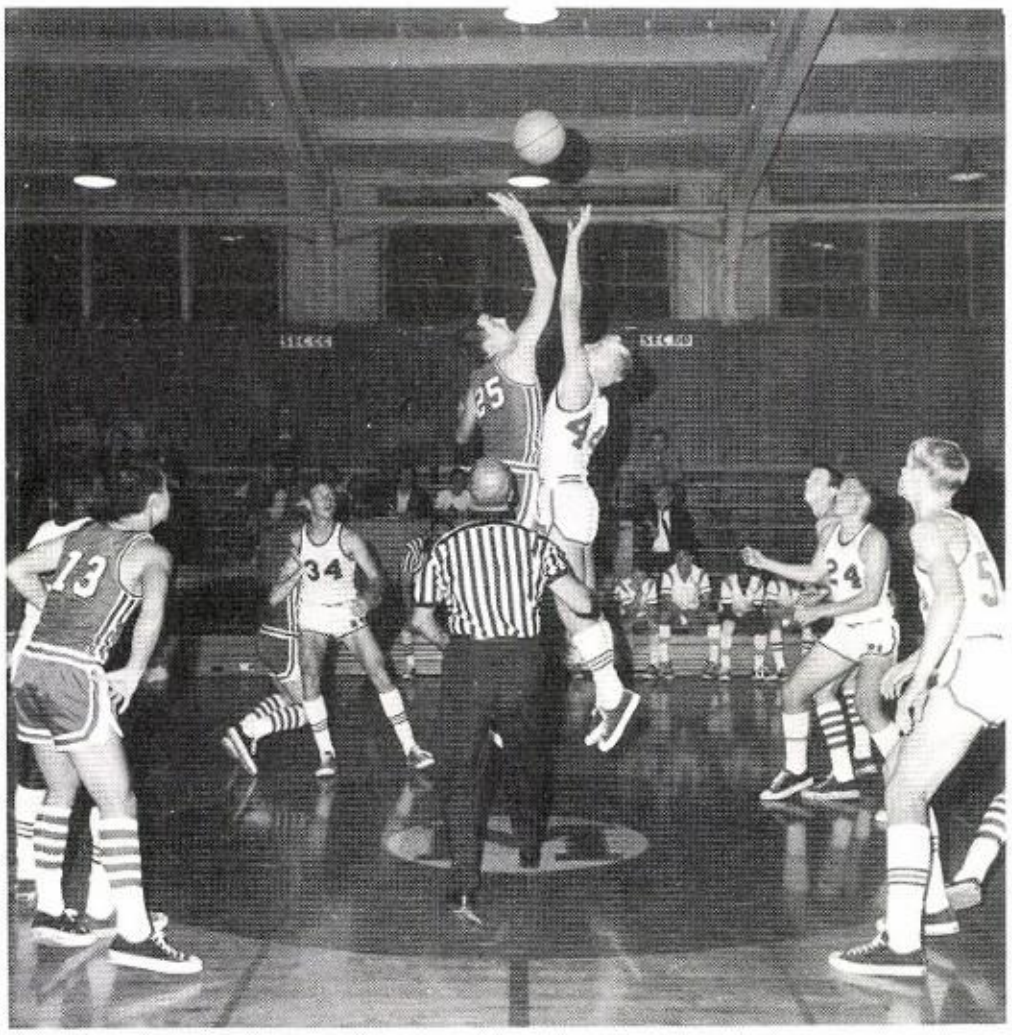
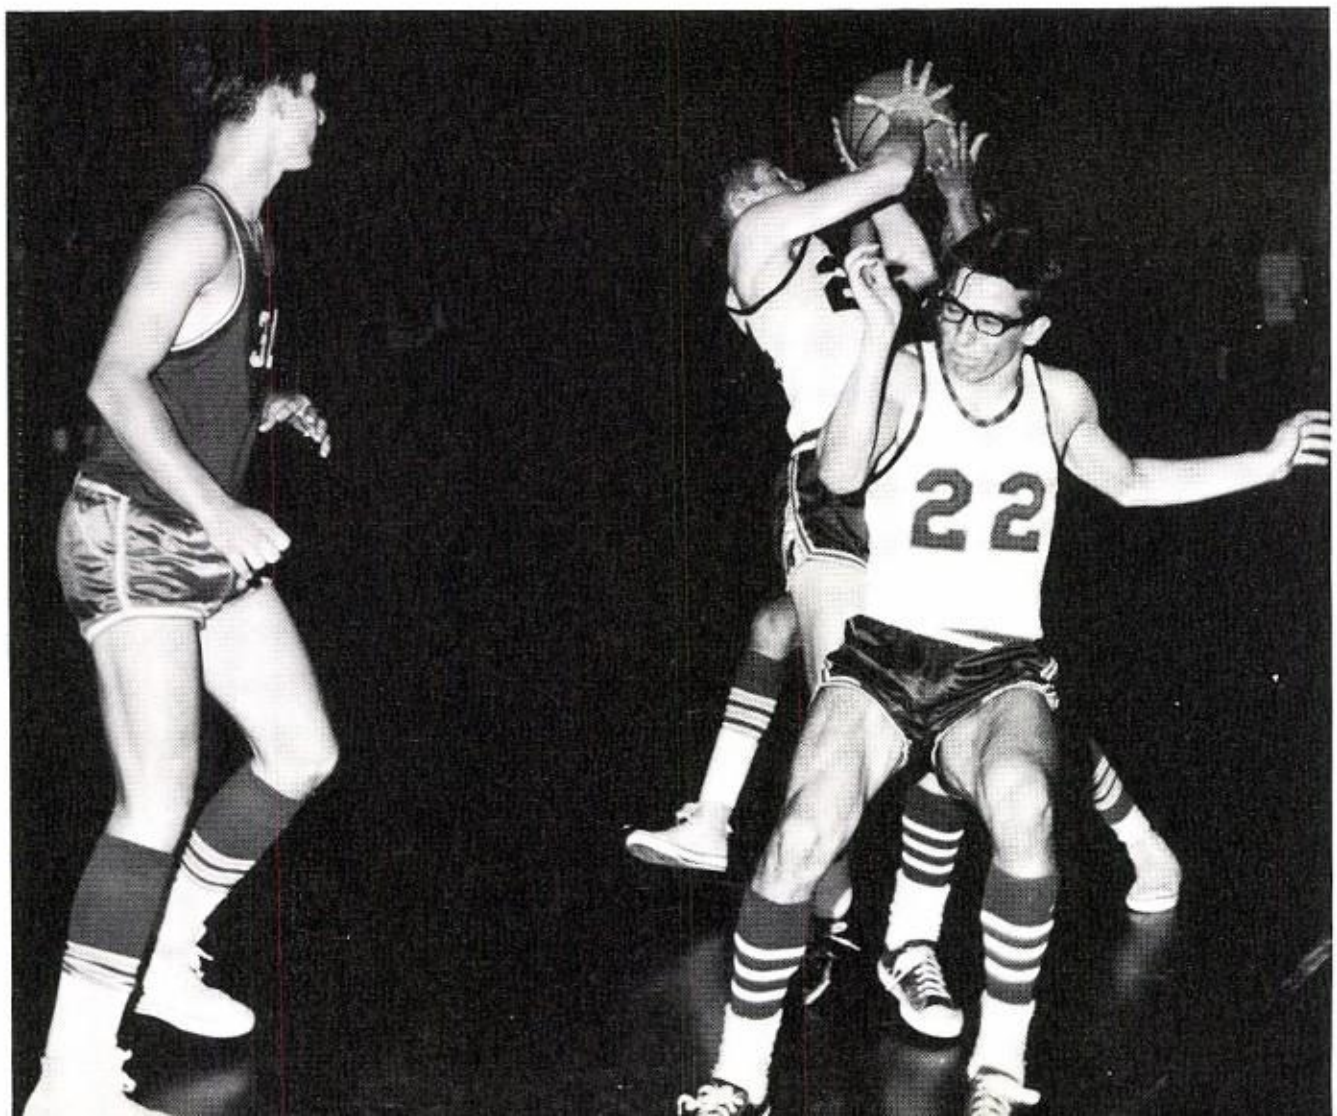
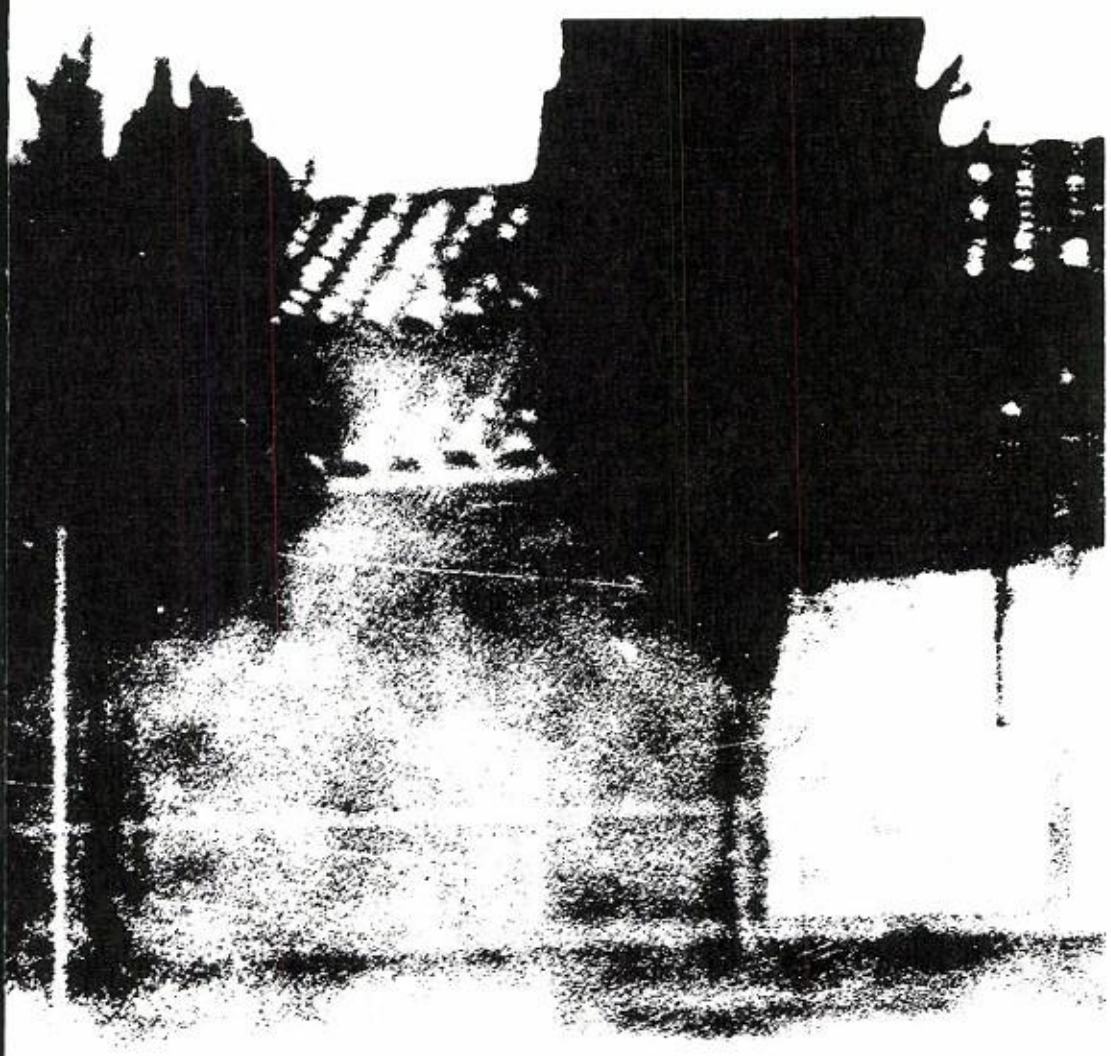
4.





3. Ben Lee puts up an inside two-pointer over out-stretched hand of a Hoover defender, while referee Bob Fries carefully observes the action.
4. All hands stand ready to claim the center jump.
5. Rob Aldecoa steadies his ten-foot jump shot.
6. Steve Schattinger and John Prandini fight for possession with Hoover defenders.

Spring Sports



YOUTH---". . .a predominance of

Baseball Has 10-0 Season

As Spring rolled around the corner, many San Joaquin backers felt that it was about time for a clean sweep of all athletic competition. The San Joaquin baseball nine also had the same ideas and the results were an undefeated, untied 10-0 season.

The Panther squad boasted consecutive wins over Dos Palos and Central. They also defeated Reedley in the semi-finals of the Sequoia Division play-offs, and then lost the Valley finals to Taft in a hard fought encounter.

Special recognition should go to every member of the Memorial team. Each person played to win and bring honor to the school he represented.

Individual standouts include John Behrens who was given the Most Valuable Player award and batted .350. Dean Jelmini was the North Sequoia League's best hitter with an average of .454. He was also named team captain.

Other standouts include Pat Cleary, Joe Kay, Steve Schattinger, Frank Ortenzio, and Lee Ochoa.

Very special tribute should be given to Tim Ryan, Jim Alamano, and Gil Gonzales, the Panther pitching staff.

Missing- Managers Fred Hebert and Pete Delmastro.

1. The exuberant, undefeated Memorial baseball squad show how sweet a 10-0 season is--a swim in uniform.
2. All-League third baseman Dean Jelmini prepares to fatten his North Sequoia League leading batting average.
3. Jimmy Alamano breaks off one of the curves that gave strikes.

Panther Pups Earn League Second

After overcoming a lowly three game losing streak in the first half of league play, coach Ken Papi's yearling squad came back to win five straight games, and second place in North Sequoia League baseball play.

Dan Montevecchi, a hard hitting infielder, paced the assault by batting .383 and playing stalwart defense. Latecomer Tim Rhames and second-sacker Dean Pryor held potent roles in the successful Panther Pup season.

Tom Ferdinandi and Owen Sullivan many times combined to score timely runs. Dave Giordano vastly improved himself over the course of the year to help the squad in many situations.

The biggest asset on this star-studded team was hard-throwing Chris Alamano. The little Latin hurled his way to many wins.

1. Dean Pryor doubles to right-center on the first pitch against Sierra.
2. J.V. team; Back Row; Coach Ken Papi, Dennis Frye, Steve Romero, Owen Sullivan, Tim Rhames, Anthony Camaroda, Rudy Facio, Pat Kemble, and manager Rodney Algiers. 2.

Linksmen Control Greens

"We'll beat Dos Palos next year!" has been the promise of the golf team for three years. This year its promise was kept as it beat Dos Palos at the Whitesbridge Country Club. It lost at Eagle Field, but came back to overcome the Broncos twice at San Joaquin and Madera Country Clubs.

The team, co-coached by Mr. Tom Cleary and Mr. Manuel Morales, sported such veterans as Steve Imhoff, Doug Pecchenino, and Noel Smith.

Next year looks promising as five linksmen return to the greens and continue their arch-rivalry with Dos Palos.

1. Head Coach Tom Cleary, Pat Agnew, Ron Johnson, Steve Meyers, Jim Manuszak, Mike Boutte, Noel Smith, Tim Cunningham, Assistant Coach Manuel Morales. Missing: Steve Imhoff, Doug Pecchenino, Greg Beshwate, and Bryan Heryford.
2. Ron Johnson blasts from a sand trap on the ninth hole at the San Joaquin Country Club.
3. Steve Meyers tees off from the sixth tee at the San Joaquin Country Club.

The "69" Swim Team had a fine pre-season string of victories, with good showings against valley powers; among them were Hoover and McLane. The "highlight" of the season came when the Panthers splashed their way to the North Sequoia League and Sequoia Divisional Championship.

The entire team fared well with outstanding performances shown by Scott Gordon, Jim Grunwald and Chad Hoffman, setting school records in 200 and 400 yard freestyle, breast-stroke and butterfly respectively. The record books were also being changed in other areas, like the 200 yard Medley Relay of Reyna, Grunwald, Hoffman, and Gordon who set a new school and pool record of 1:48.4. Finally the 400 yard Free Relay team of Bone, Hoffman, Gordon and Grunwald came through with another school and pool record clocking of 3:37.0 to end a record shattering swim season.

Paul Ezmerlian, Tim Sarbough and Kevin Delaney led the "B" Squad to its finest season ever.

The "Pantherettes" also had a fine season with Janet Collins up-dating three old records, while Terry Freeto and Pat Ryan performed well.

Coach Bruce Seifert, who has led the Swim Team for five years, seemed pleased with this year's team, saying, "It's the finest team in the history of Memorial."

Spikers Finish Best

The 1969 track team was without a doubt the greatest in the school's 24-year history.

The Varsity rolled up an 8-1 dual meet record and the C class finished at 7-2. The Class A spikers also brought home trophies from the Corcoran, Selma, Dos Palos, and Lemoore Invitationals. SJM took second in the NSL meet, fourth in the Sequoia Divisional, and fifth in the CIF Central Section Valley Finals, the latter two the highest Memorial has ever finished.

Performers of note this season would be headed by David Tucker, who established a National Sophomore record of 50'1/2 in the triple jump. "Tuck" also won four outstanding performer trophies, and was undefeated. Gilbert Perez lowered his school 880 record to 1:57.6, and Mike Castro ran a 4:27.3 mile, both placing fourth in the Valley. Doug Kass became Memorial's third individual ever to qualify for the state meet as he leaped 6'6 at Valley to take second. John Prandini headed the Class C performers with marks of 10.2, 18.4, and 21'1/4 for the 100, 180, and long jump.

In summary, Memorial's coaching staff of Dan Stockton, Jim Sacchari, and Mark Begdanovich guided SJM's record-breaking crew, which established 15 school records and numerous other meet records.

5. Shot-putter Ed Taffe displays versatility as he spins to throw the discus.
6. One-shoed Doug Kass "back-flips" over the high-jump bar at 6'6.
7. Timers catch Anthony Moreno's finish of the two-mile against Sierra and Corcoran.

Racketeers Capture 5th Straight League Crown

Led by a talented veteran squad of varsity members and coached by Mrs. Laura Behrens the 1969 Tennis Team seized its 5th consecutive North Sequoia League Tennis Crown and now stands 33-0 in league matches. Impressive personnel include Jerry Kleigl and Yolanda Rivera, mixed doubles, Frank Robbins and Dave Verdugo, boys doubles, Tom Neumeier and Julie Powers, first singles. Many of the veterans have competed for their last time at S.J.M., yet the future still looks hopeful as new talent begins to invade the courts.

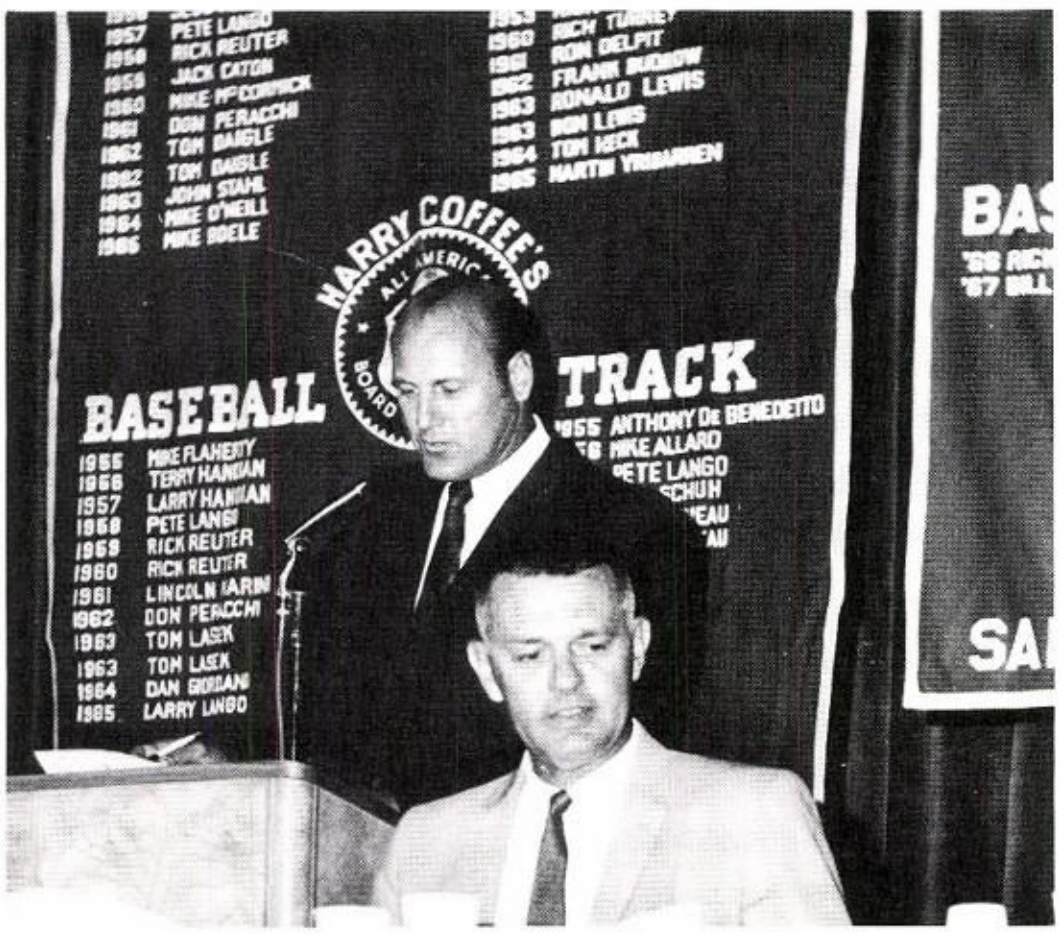
3. Tom Neumeier receives congratulations from tennis Coach Mrs. Behrens after his being named M.V.P.
4. John Behrens comes forward to receive his "Athlete of the Year" trophy.



3.

Memorial's All Sports Award Dinner Banquet took place on May 19 in the cafetorium, with former major-league slugger Gus Zernial as the guest speaker.

During the ceremonies, Dan Stockton was announced as next year's successor to Bruce Seifert, as athletic director. Mr. Seifert received a standing ovation following his farewell speech.

Harry Coffee Blankets, Most Valuable Player, and other awards were given out to individuals in all sports during the evening. Senior John Behrens received the top award, the "Athlete of the Year".

The year was kicked off with the Mr. Touchdown Dance sponsored by the senior class to welcome the freshmen. Depicting the theme in the center of the floor was a giant stuffed football player.

The band sponsored a dance to help finance its trip to Selma. The dance was the second held in the school year and proved enjoyable for those who attended. The "Thermal Vibration" provided the music.

The G.A.A. had good timing by holding its dance after fall semester exams. Students had an opportunity to relieve pressures by talking, eating cookies, drinking punch, and dancing.

Palm trees and streamers transformed the cafeteria into a paradise. The members of Block M worked diligently to present a successful dance in February. With the profits from the dance they paid for sports equipment.

3. First runners-up, representing the freshman class, are Chris Alamano and Fran Facio.

A breath of New Orleans came to Memorial's cafetorium in March when the student body celebrated the annual pre-Lenten Mardi Gras, attired in costumes traditionally worn on this day.

Representatives from the class with the highest attendance were crowned king and queen by last year's winners, Consuela Sterling and Roscoe Pondexter. Walking away with the title this year were sophomores Joanne DeRouchey and Tom Ferdinandi.

The dance, sponsored by Student Council, followed the theme "Potpourri" while students danced.

To end the Sadie Hawkins Day, a dance was held in the gym which resembled the inside of a barn. The highlight of the night came when Bob Ciccarelli announced, senior Mike Hadden, the winner of the beard growing contest.

The formal followed the recently begun tradition of having a senior as queen of the prom.

The candidates were chosen by nomination from juniors. They were Marianne Bremer, Kris Yribarren, and Helaine Reich. The queen was announced by Master-of-Ceremonies Bill Allan to be Helaine Reich.

Each of the candidates were given a stuffed mouse in keeping with the Cinderella-like theme.

Students Form Ideas Through Work And Play

Freshman moderator, Sister Catherine, assisted her class arranging a breakfast for the faculty, parents and graduates. This was the last informal occasion where seniors would be united as a class.

The Class of '70 received their class rings in October. A mass was held at the Ryan Seminary Chapel. Afterwards a luncheon, prepared by mothers of the class, was served in the school cafeteria.

The class was further united when Bruce Lopez played his guitar and students joined in singing folk songs.

2. With Mr. Hahesy's concluding remarks ends the successful leadership day.
3. Mr. Thompson demonstrates the positive and negative charges of an atom.
4. In honor of Mr. Dionizzio's birthday, Vicki Rocha presents him with a cake during half-time.

From other schools, students came to the leadership day which was hosted by San Joaquin Memorial.

Councilman Jefferson A. Hahesy, guest speaker, discussed the role of youth in government.

Students learned further when Mr. Thompson, a representative from the Edison Company, lectured to the SJM student body on the atom and its uses. This was the first assembly held in the fall semester.

The leading cheerer at the games this year was Mr. Joe Dionizzio. He contributed numerous hours of his time trying to boost spirit at games.

The energetic Joy Egerer volunteered to head the committee in organizing the first joint assembly at SJM.

The drama class, taught by Mr. Terrance O'Donnell, showed its creativity by performing the Nativity Scene as seen through the eyes of fourth-graders.

Musical abilities were unfolded when the Even Dozen, a folk-rock group on campus, sang songs that appealed to the audience. Also, the Spanish class, under the direction of Mr. Efren Diaz, filled the auditorium with Spanish Christmas carols.

The best came last when the program was highlighted by a rock-and-roll group calling themselves "The Electrifiers," who in reality were faculty members: Mr. Dan Stockton, Brother Hugh, Mr. Tom Cleary, Mr. James Saccheri, Brother Mark, and Mr. John Supino.

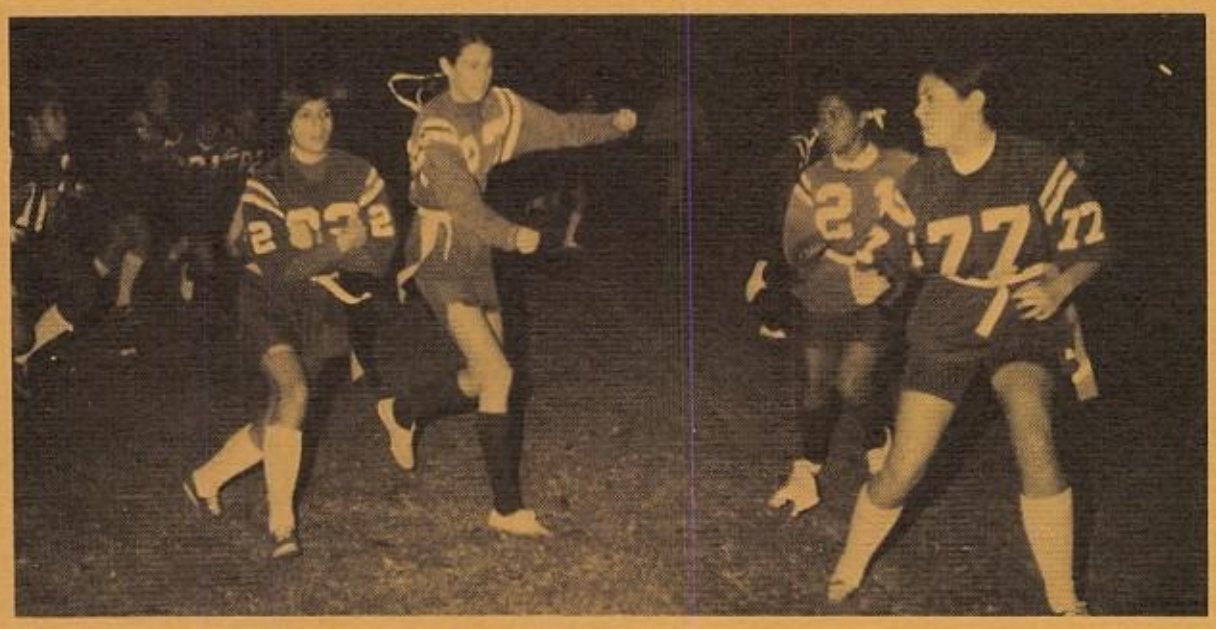
Pantherettes Steal The Grid

The annual Powder Puff game, sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association in order to raise money for sports equipment, was held on the SJM football field November 25.

Freshman and Sophomore girls battled against each other to win the position of being number one in the Junior Varsity. The Sophomores overcame the charging Freshmen by a score of 21-6.

The Seniors and Juniors climaxed the evening with their fiery game in which the Juniors were victorious with the score of 6-0.



1. Seniors Carole Esquivel, Corinne Kuehter, Cherie Derouchy, and Yolanda Rivera hustle in order to plan their next play.
2. Sophomore defense guard against the spirited freshman tackles.

The SJM football field bears no resemblance to the splendor and grandeur of a royal court yet with a little imagination the green was transformed into a red carpet during half-time festivities of the annual Homecoming Game held in December.

The candidates, Marianne Bremer, Kris Yribarren, Jeannette Valdivia, Kathy Worsley, and Loreen Tweedy were nominated by the Block M. The athletic club voted Jeannette Valdivia Homecoming Queen.

The traditional float and drive around the football field concluded the night's activities.

Unusual physical activity sparked S.J.M.'s interest in the school's first bicycle rally. Sponsored by the senior boys, the race was won by Keith Berger, one of the few to endure the sprint from the S.J.M. campus to Friant Dam.

Offering much laughter were the participants in the Senior Talent Show. The entertainment had been arranged to help fund expenses for the senior class. The harmony of the barber shop quartet contrasted sharply with the music of the "Iron Turtle", providing the crazyquilt of a memory.

The Class of '71 will remember that its cheering and enthusiasm at the sports rallies and games helped them win the '68'69 spirit trophy. The sophomores were followed by the freshmen who were proud of their number two position, edging ahead of the juniors and seniors respectively.

69-70 Officers Are Elected In Spring

Signs, slogans, and speeches were the ingredients of the 1969-1970 campaign for student body office. Official campaigning started after students announced their candidacy. Seeking office for Girls' S.B.P. were two juniors Linda Idiart and Genita Kovacevich; Boys' candidates were Bill Allan, Mike Paolercio and Barry Warmerdam; for secretary were Patty Bone, Steve Carroll and Olivia Navarro; while seeking the office of treasurer were Ramon Esquivel and Tery Fondacaro. After a week of painting signs, the newly elected officers were announced: Boys' Student Body President Mike Paolercio; Girls' Student Body President Genita Kovacevich; Student Body Secretary Olivia Navarro; and Student Body Treasurer Ramon Esquivel.

1. Kathy Worsley announces the candidates seeking a student body office.
2. Newly elected officres, tearful Olivia Navarro and Ramon Esquivel, congratulate each other.
3. Genita Kovacevich receives the news of her position as Girls' Student Body President.
4. Michael J. Paolercio is overcome with joy at winning the office he sought, that of Boys' Student Body President.

Jeannette Valdivia
Homecoming Queen

JoAnn DeRouchey
Mardi Gras Queen

Helaine Reich
Junior-Senior Prom Queen

Queens Jeannette, JoAnn, Helaine Reign For A Day

With the formal activities in the fall and spring semesters at San Joaquin Memorial came royalty as well.

The year was opened with Homecoming. The eventful night followed the tradition of having a float on which the cheerleaders and pep-girls rode, while the candidates drove in 1969 cars with their escorts in a car rally around the football field. Climaxing the night was the announcement of the 1968-1969 Homecoming Queen.

Candidates Kris Yribarren, Loreen Tweedy, Marianne Bremer, Kathy Worsley, and Jeannette Valdivia were nominated by the Block M.

They were presented to the student body at the rally. During the game's half-time, the master-of-ceremonies, John Peyton, crowned Jeannette Valdivia, queen.

In the spring each class nominated a boy and girl to represent it at the Mardi Gras Dance. The representatives were: seniors, Angie Preciado and Joe De Santiago; juniors, Mary Kay Farmer and Sammy Antuna; sophomores, JoAnn DeRouchey and Tom Ferdinandi; freshmen, Fran Facio and Chris Alamano.

The class with the highest attendance had its representatives crowned queen and king. The sophomores for the second successive year supported their class to have JoAnn DeRouchey and Tom Ferdinandi crowned.

Concluding the year of royalty was the Junior-Senior Prom. The nomination of three seniors, Helaine Reich, Kris Yribarran, and Marianne Bremer by the junior class and the announcement of Helaine Reich, Prom Queen, brought the school year to a climax.

Retreat Enables Seniors To Meditate On Life

2.

1. Vickie Rocha plays her guitar and leads the singing with Sister Margarant Mary, Teresa Bispo, Kathy Worsley and Pat Medina.
2. Senior girls' take time out between songs that are to be sung at Mass.
3. In the mud senior boys still shout their number one.
4. Hank Read and Father Janelli discuss the purpose of a retreat.
5. Listening attentively at Father Morton's gradual are Vickie Rocha and Carla Sinerchio.
6. "Gathering around the table of the Lord" are Genna Allen, Carmen Mancebo, Loween Tweedy, Denise Gainer and Aleta Gardner.

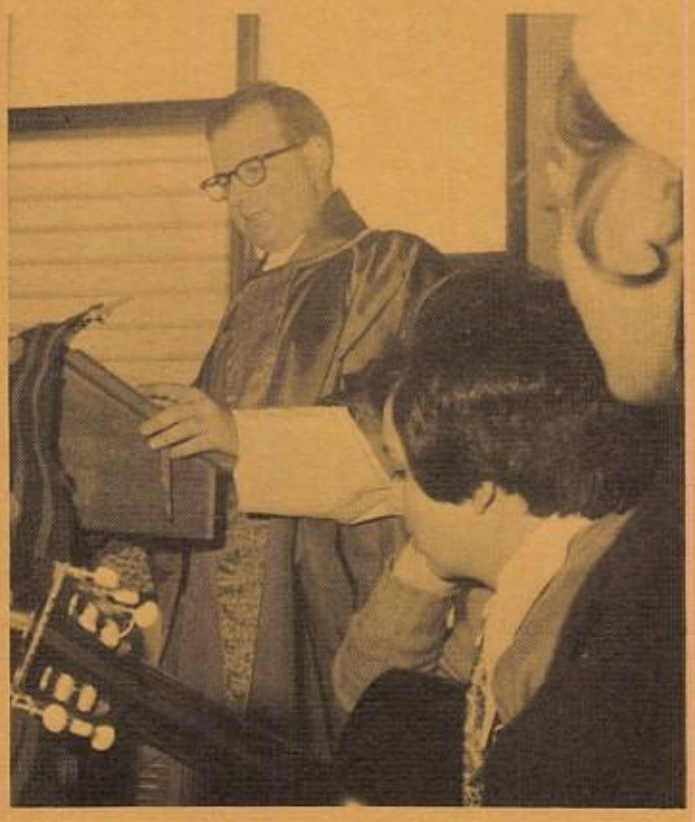
4.

Away from city life and its pressures, seniors ventured to Three Rivers with the intention of examining their past life and planning, after much meditation, their future.



5.

The boys in December on separate weekends, and girls in January for one weekend went with retreat leaders Father Morton and Father Janelli, priests from St. Therese parish, to Three Rivers. There, each individual had the opportunity of voicing his opinions concerning sin, the world, and church problems. These conferences were attended by those interested in that particular subject. Besides conferences there was time for recreation. Although it rained at the boys' retreat, it was not a hindrance for they played tackle in the mud. The girls' confined their recreation to setting each other's hair, and talking.

A folk-mass brought many students closer to God because they became involved in the Mass by singing and taking the body and blood of Christ under the form of bread and wine.

Assembly, Mass And Breakfast Conclud

Sister Paricianne, Brother Raymond and seniors bid farewell for the last time to the entire student body at the Farewell Assembly in June. 1968-69 student body officers, Kathy Worsley and John Casey, concluded their year with a speech and the swearing in of next years officers, Genita Kovacevich and Mike Paolercio. Olivia Navarro presented Tom Abercrombie, Student Body Secretary, with a gift and afterwards she was sworn into office. Andy Bone administered the oath of Student body Treasurer to Ramon Esquivel who presented him with a gift.

1. John Casey administers the oath of Student Body President to Mike Paolercio.
2. Outgoing Student Body President Kathy Worsley, swears in Genita Kovaevich.
3. Taking Andy Bone's office is Ramon Esquivel who promises to keep all finances straight.
4. Olivia Navarro repeats the oath of Student Body Secretary after Tom Abercrombie.

Brother Mark conducted the seniors when they sang their theme song, "Turn, Turn, Turn." The assembly terminated when the class of '69 sang the SJM's Alma Mater with the student body.

Year For Seniors

3. The Fresno Convention Theatre marked the sight of the 24th Baccalaureate Mass given for the graduates and their parents.

The Mass of the Trinity was celebrated by Rev. Don D. Flickinger with Rev. Finian McGinn, O.F.M., homilist. Senior class president, Robert Ciccarelli led in the responses to the prays. The offertory procession consisted of the senior officers, Cynthia Sterling, John Peyton, Carla Sinerchie and Anthony Young.

The Mass was concluded with a blessing from Rev. Flickinger and the recessional Psalm 18.

1. Server, Ramon Esquivel, assist Father McGinn in giving Sue Ramierz communion.
2. Bertha Galvan rejoices because there is only four more days till graduation.
3. Faculty, parents and students enjoy a good breakfast.

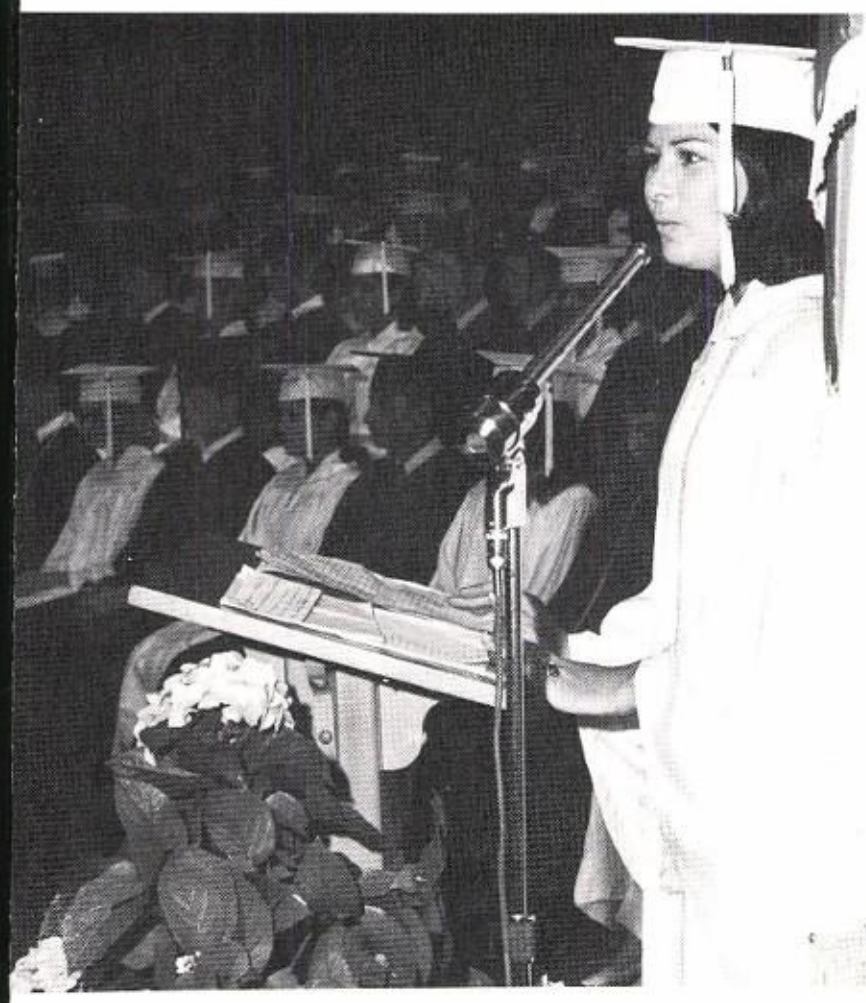
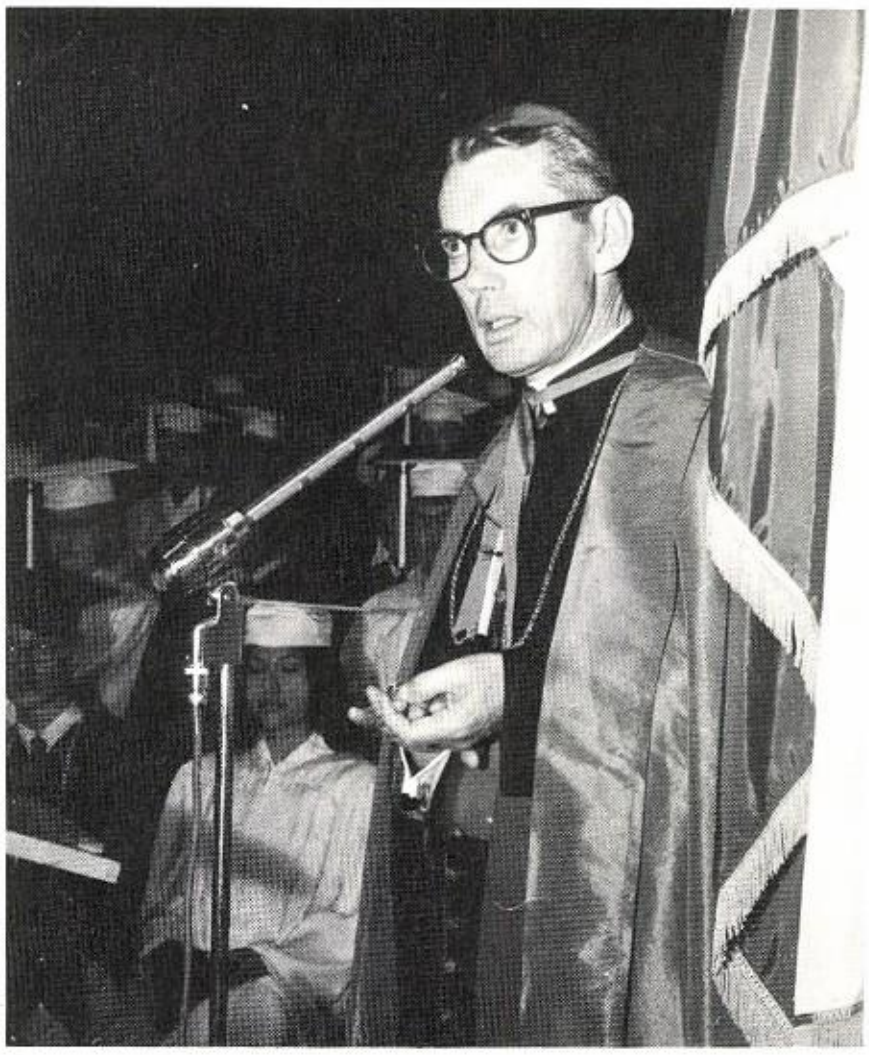
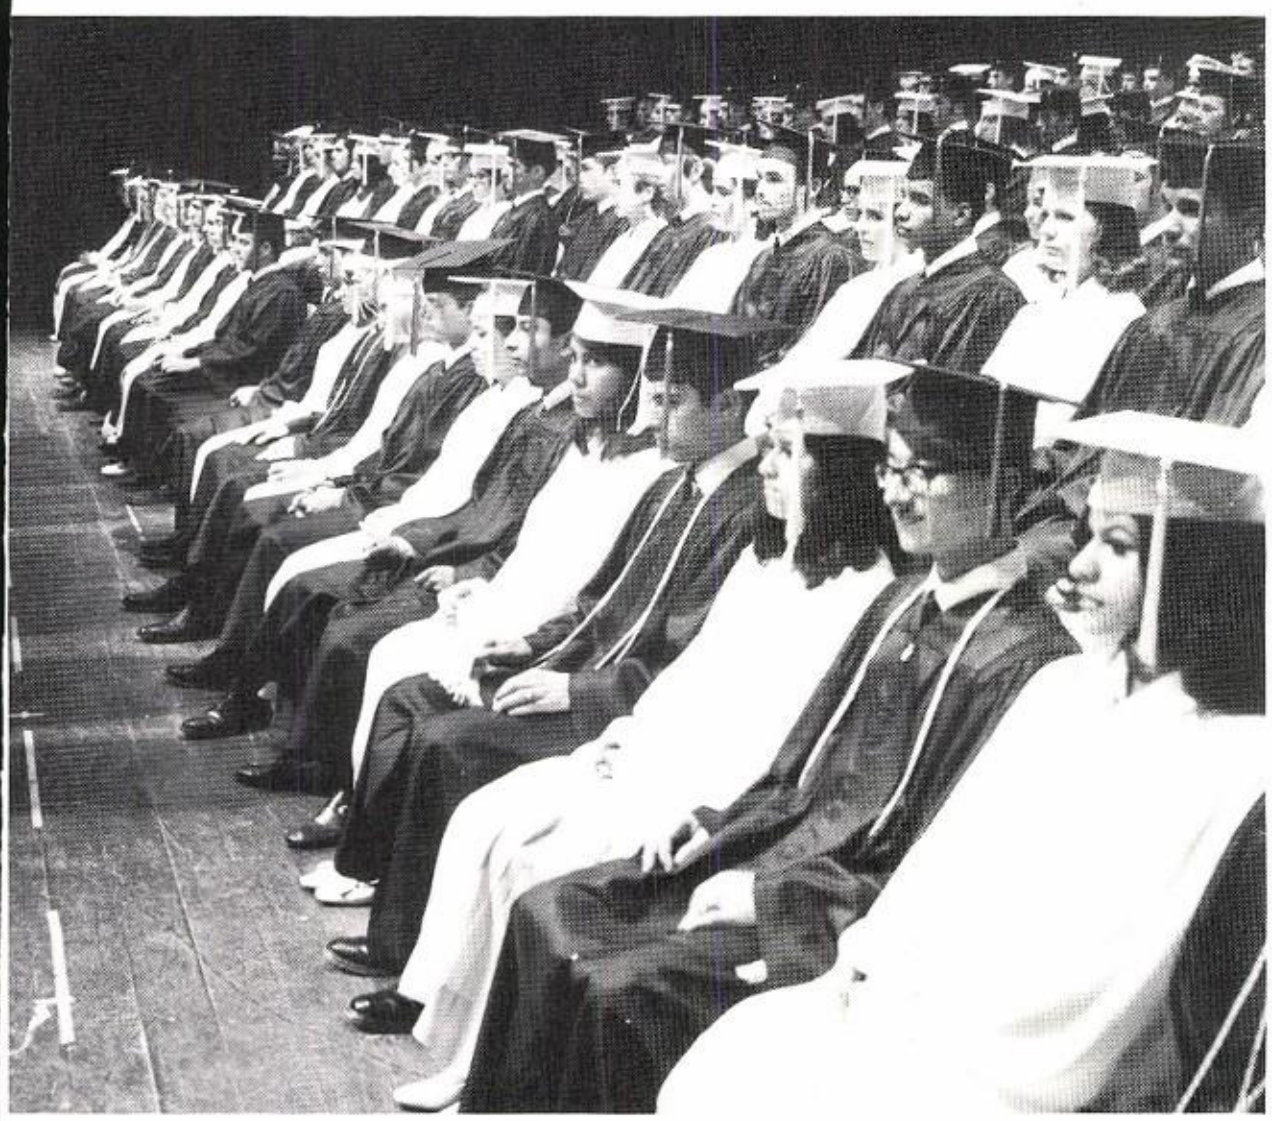
6.

1. A feeling of nostalgia engulfs Susan Ramirez after the Farewell Assembly.
2. John Casey delivers his last address as Student Body President.
3. Theresa Freeto delivers her salutatory address at the graduation ceremonies.
4. His Excellency Bishop Timothy Manning addresses the graduates and the audience at the commencement exercises.
5. Steve McCauley, John Aiello, Bill Barlak, and Jim McKenna show off their gold cords which represent life membership in C. S. F.
6. Dennis Melkenian receives his diploma from His Excellency Bishop Timothy Manning.







On June 9, 1969 the 24th graduating class of San Joaquin Memorial High School held its commencement exercises in the Fresno Convention Center Theatre.

John Casey and Theresa Freeto, gave their addresses as valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively. Presenting diplomas to the graduates was Excellency Bishop Timothy Manning.

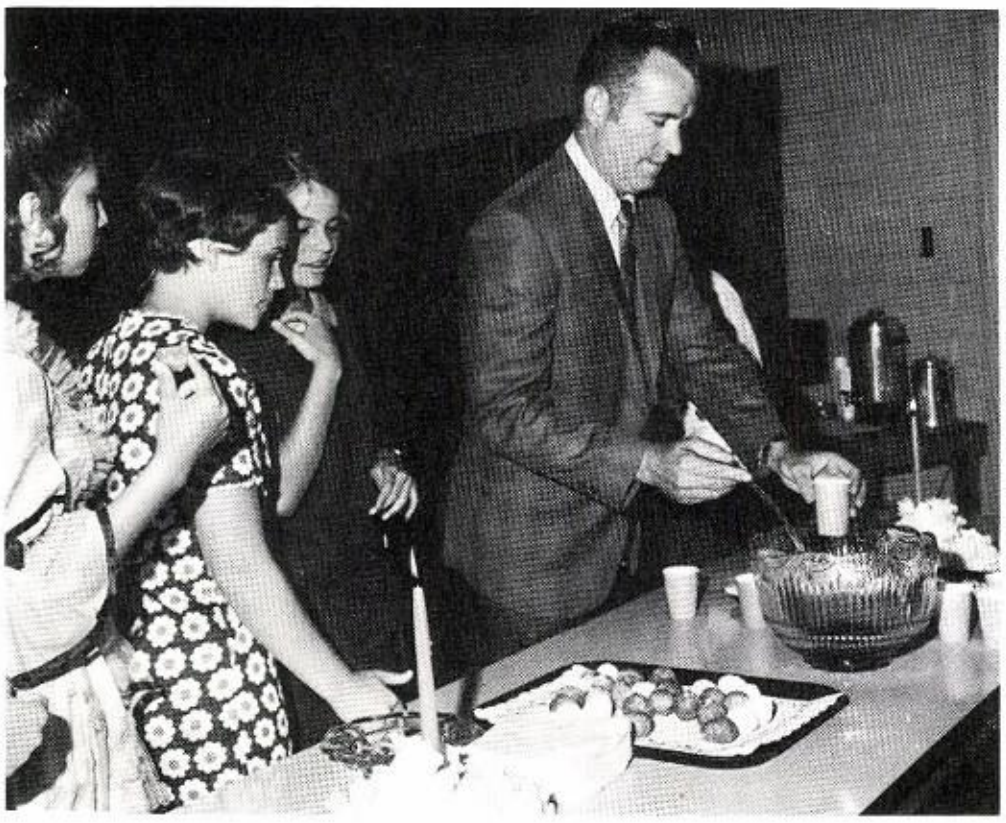
Awards for leadership were given to John Casey and Kathy Worsely, Student Body Presidents. Students were also acknowledged for academic achievements and various scholarship awards were announced.

Concluding the evening was the singing of the class song "Turn, Turn, Turn" and the Alma Mater.

7. The graduates of 1969 sit together for the last time as a class.

Parents Are Involved In Farewell And Dance

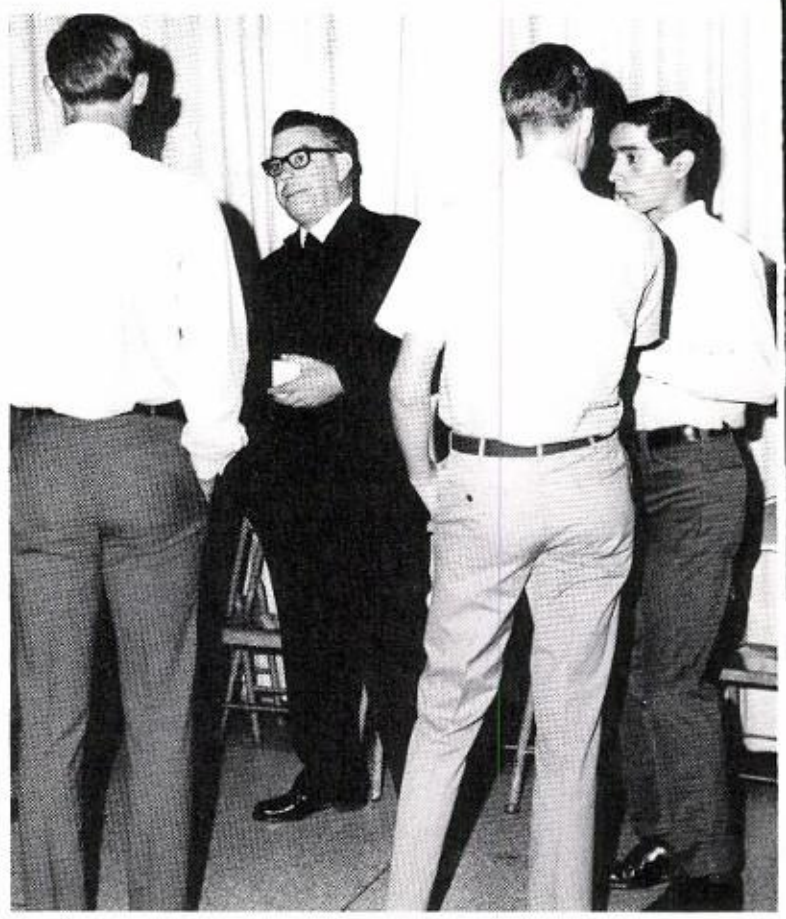
1.



3.

2.

4.



1. Mr. Hetbert pours punch for his daughters, Ann and Mary.
2. "That's right, just follow me", explains Linda to her partner.
3. Sister Patricianne bid good-bye to families.
4. Students say farewell to Brother Raymond.

Final farewells were said at the surprise tea, held in June, for Sister Patricianne and Brother Raymond. Past Memorialites who were taught by both co-principals attended along with parents, good friends and present students.

Besides bidding sad farewells to the co-principals, fathers looked on the brighter side of going to a dance...with their daughters. The Father-Daughter dance, sponsored by the Girls' Student Council, had the setting of the early 1900's.

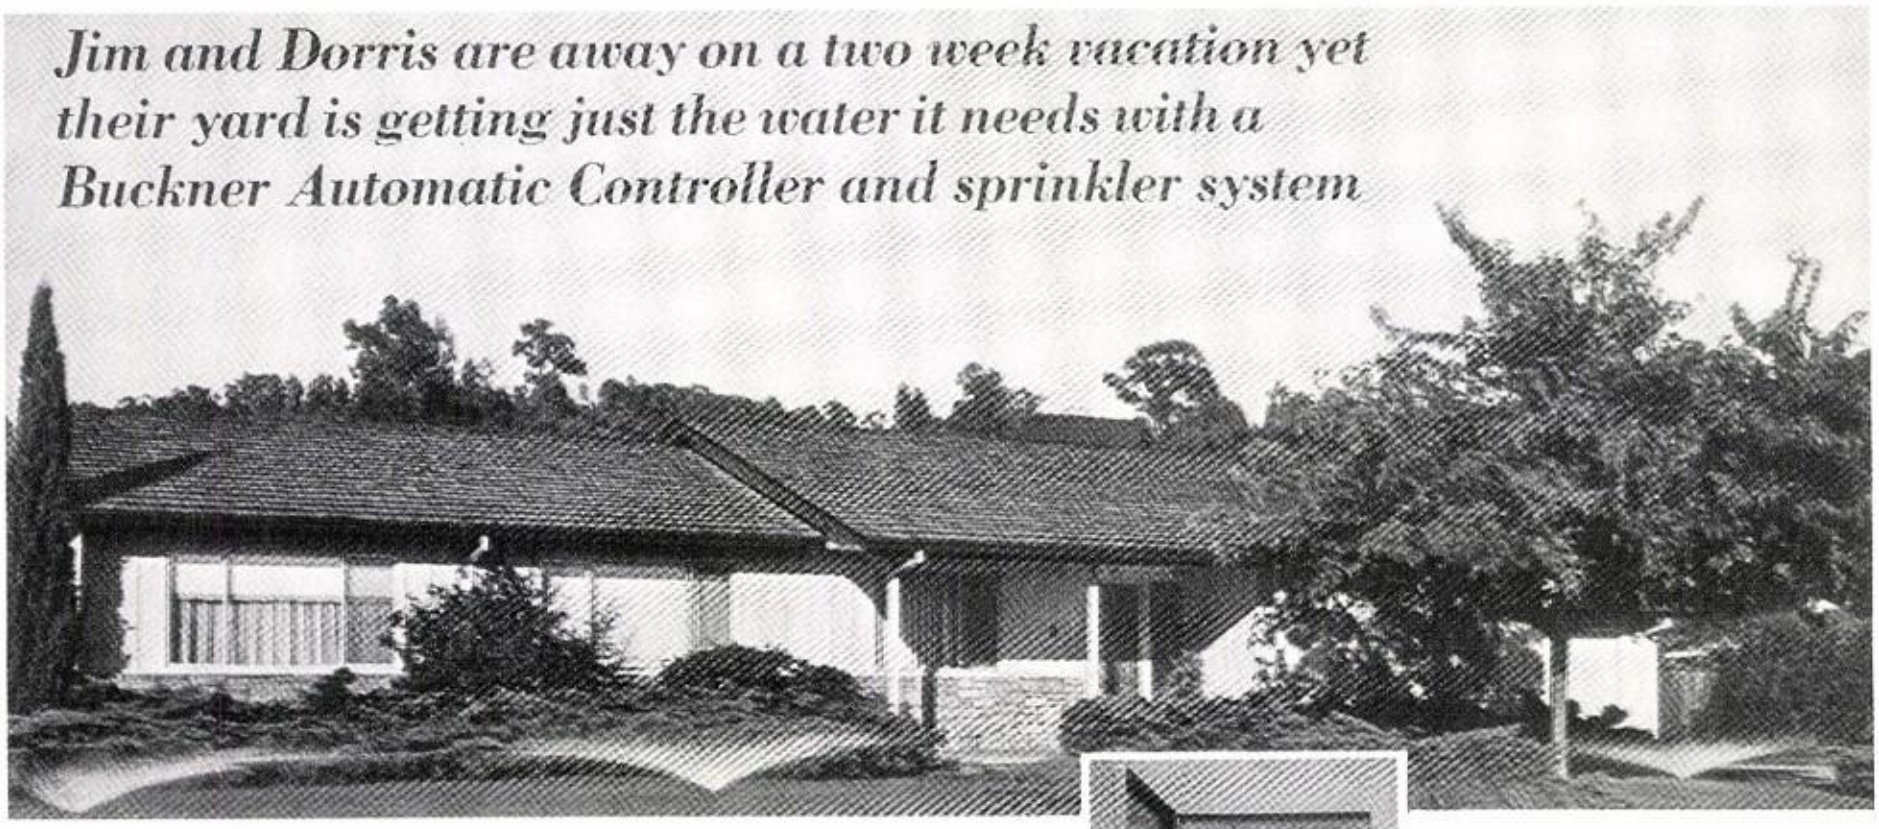
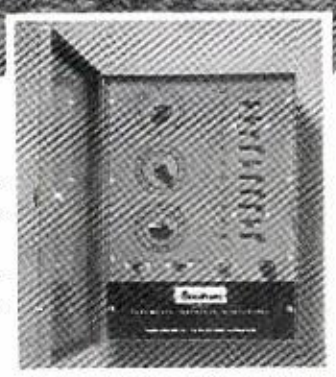
Jim and Dorris are away on a two week vacation yet their yard is getting just the water it needs with a Buckner Automatic Controller and sprinkler system



Forget watering worries — overwatering, burned up lawns, irregular sprinkling — with a Buckner Automatic Moisture Controller. Whether you're home or not, this Buckner controller checks your yard's moisture automatically... waters only when needed. If it's raining... or if yard has enough moisture... the watering cycle is skipped. Just set it and forget it.

Install this controller and Buckner automatic valves with either new or existing underground systems.

For more facts about Buckner automatic or manual sprinkler systems, see your Yellow Pages.



Fully Automatic. Has 10 stations for 5, 10, 15 or 30 minute watering
